1. [REDACTED] LIAISON At [REDACTED] request, I called Mike Hornblow, of the NSC staff, and relayed to him that neither the House Select Committee or the Senate Select Committee had requested the Post Mortem on the Mayaguez incident. He asked if it had been provided to Senator John Sparkman (D., Ala.) and I told him no, that we had written a letter to Sparkman suggesting that we brief him directly on the matter and had heard nothing since that time. I mentioned to Hornblow that Representative Dante B. Fascell (D., Fla.) had agreed to call off the ~~GAO~~ review of the Mayaguez matter at least as far as CIA is concerned. He said that ~~GAO~~ was still after the Post Mortem and he didn't know how to handle it. He said that since it was our document, how would we feel if he released it. I reminded him that since we provided it to NSC, that NSC had taken the position that it was now an NSC document and that had been the basis in the beginning of our refusal to give it to GAO. I also reminded him that it was our understanding that Henry A. Kissinger, Secretary of State, had put a hold on the Post Mortem. In view of this, Hornblow said that NSC would probably turn GAO down but that if a decision was made to give it to them, he would check with us first.

1. [REDACTED] LIAISON At Mr. Cary's direction, I called Les Janka, of the NSC staff, and relayed to him Representative Dante B. Fascell's (D., Fla.) agreement to call off the GAO study on the Mayaguez incident until such time as oversight of Congress is more definitively organized as a result of the current investigations. He was pleased with this turn of events.

10. [REDACTED] LIAISON In response to his query, told Mike Hornblow, NSC staff, that I was quite sure we had forwarded the Post Mortem on the Mayaguez incident to the Senate and House Select Committees but that I would check. I also filled him in on the agreement we had reached with Chairman Dante Fascell, Subcommittee on International Political & Military Affairs, House International Relations Committee, that we would not have to provide the material he requested to him through GAO but that we would do so directly to his Subcommittee.
